LEHMAN ENGEL
50 EAST 54TH STREET
NEW YORK 22

June 3, 1967

Dear Miss Jessye:

Thank you for your letter, your brochure and your new address. I hope things are going to go well for you and you may be assured that if I have the opportunity of using your choir in connection with any of my work, I will be most happy to be in touch with you.

I would also be happy to hear Miss Ivory sing, but there is no point in my doing so at this time since I am expecting to spend a quiet summer doing creative work after what has been a pleasant two months vacation in Europe.

I will not forget either you or Miss Ivory and should the time arise when I will be doing some casting either for the theatre or for recordings, you will hear from me again.

Best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Lehman Engel
